

This Evenfall 'tis snowing

Es ist ein Schnee gefallen

Caspar Othmayr (1515-1553)

1. This E - ven - fall 'tis snow - ing, Long ere the frost is due;_ With
2. My chim - ney does but sput - ter, It grows ex - ceed - ing old;_ With
3. Ah, Love, does it not grieve you That I so wretch - ed be?_ Then

1. This E - ven - fall 'tis snow - ing, Long ere the frost is due;_ With
2. My chim - ney does but sput - ter, It grows ex - ceed - ing old;_ With
3. Ah, Love, does it not grieve you That I so wretch - ed be?_ Then ic - y breath a - blow - ing, Does Win - ter whis - tle through._ With ev' - ry shut - ter bro - ken, My tin - y room so cold;_ With hold me in your arms, dear, Let Win - ter fly from me!_ Then ic - y breath a - blow - ing, Does Win - ter whis - tle through._ With ev' - ry shut - ter bro - ken, My tin - y room so cold;_ With hold me in your arms, dear, Let Win - ter fly from me!_ Then ic - y breath a - blow - ing, Does Win - ter whis - tle through.

ev' - ry shut - ter bro - ken, My tin - y room so cold.
hold me in your arms, dear, Let Win - ter fly from me!

ic - y breath a - blow - ing, Does Win - ter whis - tle through.
ev' - ry shut - ter bro - ken, My tin - y room so cold.
hold me in your arms, dear, Let Win - ter fly from me!